Inwarai Department

Sir,

I have the honor to submit, that the temple of Anjaneya devaru, situated in the Village of Karé-manhalli, Kasba hobli of the Channarayapatna Taluk, enjoyed an Inam Consisting of Survey Nos 38 and 84 (Inam Nos 3 and 124), measuring 17 guntas, assessed at annas Eight and 6 acres and 37 guntas, assessed at Rs six, respectively and the same was Confirmed to the Institution with an annual Jenit rent of 12 annas by the Inam Department, Vide Inam Title deed No 101/49479 filed with the proceedings. —

2. But the Pujari having resigned the same in the year Vishu, 1881-82, it was through mistake brought under the head Government assessed waste, instead of being retained under the head head Inam and the Jodi under Special Kabulate.

3. The Villagers represent that the temple has been kept in good order and worship Continued, and pray that the Inam might be restored, binding themselves liable for the payment of Jodi amount and up keep of the building. The Amildar testifies to the good condition of the temple and the Conduct of the worship therein.

4. Under the above circumstances I beg to Solicit orders for the restoration of the Inam in question. The Vernacular papers ending with the Amildar's Report No 1567/1594 dated 15th ultimo, are also submitted for further reference and return.

I have the honor to be

2. The Inam lands have been confirmed to the temple by the Inam Deptt. The temple is in good order and the Puja therein is being performed regularly. The villagers have executed a Mutchalika binding themselves to be responsible for the payment of Jodi and the regular performance of worship in the temple. The lands proposed to be restored now remain Banjar and unoccupied.

3. Under the above circumstances, the restoration of the Inam Lands to the Anjaneya Devaru temple at Karèmarnahalli is sanctioned.
